

marchmont st giles church edinburgh

CLIENT: Marchmont St Giles

ARCHITECT: LDN Architects

M&E Value: £0.3m

SECTORS:

Ecclesiastical

New flexible church hall facilities with meeting rooms, a church office, vestry and catering kitchen have been provided in a modern building adjoining the existing church.

Creative solutions to providing low cost, low energy methods of servicing the new spaces were required.

Irons Foulner's design includes low energy lighting, underfloor heating and natural ventilation of the main hall area using stack effect ventilators.